The Stitch Society* is a piece of crafting heaven based in the old textile mill that is Keighley Business Centre. For sometime now The Stitch Society* has been inspiring stitchers, makers and menders to share their knowledge and skills with each other in their airy studio.

nationally, their work includes being featured on the Radio 4 website with their quirky interpretation of The Shipping Forecast, as part of the Radio 4 Loves Knitting Day; this now famous piece will be on display in the shop.

Continuing their mission to share their combined knowledge, Fiona Drake and Charlotte Meek, the founding members of The Stitch Society*, will be appearing at 74 Main Street, Haworth for two weeks only, from the 17th until 30th April.

Part of The Stitch Society* philosophy is to provide simple, effective tools and kits to enhance the crafting experience; such as The Stylish Tin of Sewing Tools and The Helpful Tin of Knitting Tools; all this loveliness and more will be available in the shop.

With their lighthearted and informative approach to teaching, Fiona and Charlotte ensure that The Stitch Society* workshops include all materials, instructions and tools – often served with a slice of cake and lashings of tea. The Spring programme includes workshops as diverse as Felted Flowers, Weaving and Learning to Spin. There will be an opportunity to sample a range of mini workshops, which will be running over the two weekends, including needle felting, knitting, crochet and sewing.

Encouraging others to share their skills and become part of The Stitch Society* community of Friends has lead to a devoted following, who regularly attend the Friday morning Knit & Stitch* group, which will be happening in the shop on the 17th and 24th April, from 10 until 12, everyone is welcome to join us.

Gaining notoriety for their expertise, both locally and

Full details of all the mini workshops are available on our website at www.thestitchsociety.com.

Call in or email hello@thestitchsociety.com to reserve your place.

For readers of this magazine, Fiona and Charlotte are offering a 25% discount on any two workshops booked together. Just bring this magazine with you to claim the discount.

The first Tour de Yorkshire Cycletta will feature the daughter of Beryl Burton OBE after Denise Burton-Cole, herself a top-level cyclist, confirmed her participation. Burton, a member of the British Cycling Hall of Fame, won around 100 national championships, as well as racing alongside her daughter at the 1972 world championships.

The sportive, held along the route of the Tour de Yorkshire and organised by sports event company Human Race, has already attracted nearly 300 entrants. "It is great to have Denise in the Tour de Yorkshire Cycletta Ride. Denise was inspired by her mother to take up cycling and went on to become a medal winner and now Denise is inspiring other women to take up the sport."

The family tradition in the sport does not end there either, with Burton-Cole's own daughter Anna joining her at the Cycletta. "I am absolutely delighted to be taking part in this event," said Burton-Cole. "It is fantastic for Yorkshire to have an international cycle race and for a mass participation women's event to run

- Gary Verity, Chief Executive of Welcome to Yorkshire.

The Importance of making Lasting Powers of Attorney

I often have clients say to me that they do not need a Power of Attorney as they are not old enough to need one yet, and when the time comes they will make one. I find that clients are increasingly aware of the importance of making a Will, but there is still a feeling that Powers of Attorney are for "old people" and that there is no need to consider making one until later on in life.

The problem with this view is that at the time you or your family need you to have a Power of Attorney, it may be too late for you to make one, as you can only make a Power of Attorney if you have the mental capacity to understand the implications of the document.

Powers of Attorney are not only for people in later life with illnesses like dementia, they are invaluable in circumstances such as accidents where someone suffers brain damage, or a stroke or other sudden illness, and is unable to deal with their day to day affairs.

A Lasting Power of Attorney is a document which remains valid even if you lose mental capacity after it has been made. There are two types of Lasting Powers of Attorney, one to deal with your property and financial affairs and one to deal with your health and welfare.

If you lose mental capacity and do not have a Lasting Power of Attorney then your family may need to make an application to the Court of Protection in order to be able to deal with your affairs on your behalf. This can be a long and costly process at an upsetting time.

With a Lasting Power of Attorney you chose who you wish to be your attorneys. You are in full control of what happens in the event you lose mental capacity, but without one, anyone can make an application to the Court of Protection on your behalf and you do not have any say in this.

We advise our clients to consider making a Lasting Power of Attorney at the same time as they are making their Will to give peace of mind and ensure that their families do not face any difficulties in the future.

COUNTRY COOKING & FORAGING FOR FOOD
 For the promotion of Health & Wellbeing by Cath Bromwich

I wanted to share with you a nice little recipe; my onion gravy.

What is useful about this gravy is that it doesn't need a Sunday roast in order to get a rich, meaty tasting sauce; in fact it is vegetarian! This means that you can make it easily, whenever you like. I am not keen on granular gravy; if you like it, fine. But if you don't then here is a good alternative. You can add any herbs, wine or other bits once you have the basics so it can be made to pair with any dish. Recently in my 'Cook Clubs' that I run (see community page for details of the free weekly Keighley group) we have made the wonderful 'Mince Wellington' Jamie Oliver recipe. This onion gravy is a great accompaniment for that. One of the things we aim to do at the club is to learn about cooking on a tight budget, so for example with the Mince Wellington recipe we try and make a treat meal stretch further by adding more cost effective ingredients. The gravy also is an economical option and certainly beats buying the liquid shop bought ones. You can make it as runny or thick as you like, and if you prefer I'll show you how in Keighley!

Cath Bromwich, a Silsden resident, is a cookery teacher and forager. Her livelihood includes foraging and cookery courses, such as cooking on a budget and outdoor foraging and cooking experiences. She trained at Ballymaloe Cookery School, Ireland. For more information, or to pass on your stories and recipes, contact Cath at www.facebook.com/foragercathyorkshire

Chop the onion into thin slices, pour some oil or butter into a pan (a little of both adds flavour), 'sweat' these on a gentle heat until soft. Make up to a pint of vegetable stock. I also add a teaspoon or 2 of yeast extract (marmite) or you can use stock cubes.

Add 1-3 tablespoons of plain flour & stir this into the onion juices, let this cook for a few minutes to cook the flour, keep stirring to stop burning. Add salt and pepper (if using marmite you won't need the salt, but lots of pepper in this is tasty). You can add a spoon or 2 of grainy mustard, herbs like rosemary or a splash of red wine.

Slowly add the stock, stirring all the time. You may want to turn up the heat to medium. Keep stirring to make a smooth gravy. When you have the consistency & amount you want let it simmer for a couple of minutes. Taste. Add any more seasoning you want, serve.

Top Tip:
Try growing fresh herbs at home!

Behind the Scenes at the Museum

The Brontë Parsonage Museum has just launched its new contemporary arts programme highlighting some of the events and exhibitions taking place at the Parsonage between now and the autumn. In the next instalment of People at the Parsonage, we meet Arts Officer Jenna Holmes to tell us more.

Tell us a little about yourself:

Well, I've always loved history, literature and art so the contemporary arts programme is a dream job for me! I live in Ilkley and have recently come back to work part-time after having my little boy in 2013.

How long have you worked at the Museum?

I've been here since late 2007 and the time has flown by, I love working at the Museum and the wide variety of things that entails. Because we are a small team we work closely and get involved in lots of different areas. I'm also very privileged to meet an amazing mix of writers and artists who visit Haworth as part of our programme.

Tell us about a typical day:

A lot of my job is desk based - so I am contacting publishers or agents and arranging events, from booking the speaker and all of their arrangements to printing flyers and selling tickets. But the most intriguing work for me is the projects with contemporary artists, as they allow me to delve into the collection and discover new things. I'm often to be found pestering our Collections team with strange queries, such as "Do we know how much rainfall there was in Haworth in 1848?", "Would it be OK if I hung some paper moths from Mr Brontë's bed?" or "What is the circumference of the tree in the garden?" I'm sure they often hide when they see me coming.

What's your favourite piece in the collection?

That's a difficult question as there are many fascinating items. I'm really drawn to the clothes and textiles and although there are some very charming delicate things, I also can't help loving the Brontës' stockings - they are thick, woolly and pretty gruesome. The Brontës would have been horrified that we have them on display I am sure. They are all heavily darned, Charlotte's very neatly and Emily's very messily - she obviously had better things to do!

And your favourite Brontë novel?

That is tricky, but if I could only take one to a desert island, I probably would choose 'Wuthering Heights' over 'Jane Eyre', though of course I love them both.

Anything else you'd like to tell us?

I'm really pleased our new programme has been released and I hope local audiences will be interested in our event with Will Atkins on 17 April. Will stayed in Stanbury when he was writing part of his book 'The Moor' and discusses the importance that places such as Top Withens hold in our literary imagination. Anyone interested in the history and romance of the moors and the local landscape should definitely come along to hear more!

The Museum is open daily. Adult admission is £7.50, with concessions available.

William Atkins The Moor: Lives, Landscape, Literature

FRIDAY 17 APRIL 7.30pm
WEST LANE BAPTIST CENTRE, HAWORTH

Join author Will Atkins as he talks about his journey on foot through Britain's moorlands and explores their captivating position in our literature, history and psyche. The book features Haworth moor and the literary connections with places such as Top Withens, influencing Emily Brontë through to Sylvia Plath.

A walk around St Ives Estate 4 miles (6.4km) circular walk

The Route

Although this circular route is only 4 miles (6.4km) the walk involves quite a bit of climbing, most on rough, unmade paths across fields, woodland and moorland.

There are also short sections of narrow country lanes and other surfaced roads where great care should be taken especially if walking with children.

Most of the walk is on the St Ives Estate, the former home of the Ferrands family and passes by the Coppice Pond, Lady Blantyre's rock and the Ferrands Memorial before leaving the estate to visit Druids Altar with its spectacular views of the Aire Valley.

Walk Start Point

Main entrance to Myrtle Park, adjacent to Bingley Swimming Pool. For a detailed description of the walk visit: www.bradford.gov.uk/countryside.

We hope you enjoyed your walk. If so tell your friends, if not, or you have encountered any problems please tell us at:

A PASSION FOR TEACHING

At Kip McGrath Education Centres

The first Kip McGrath Education Centre opened its doors in Australia 36 years ago. Founded by school teachers Kip and Dug McGrath, that first tutoring centre has grown since then into a global franchise network of 300 tutoring centres owned and operated by qualified and experienced teachers who have a common motivation - a passion for teaching.

Offering tutoring to children from Pre-school through to Year 13 in reading, spelling, comprehension, English and maths, our 300 centres worldwide can be found in both metropolitan and regional locations. While the primary focus is to improve or extend a child's learning outcomes, the real value in attending a Kip McGrath Educational Centre is the teachers that tutor each centre. For our tutors teaching is not a job - it's a vocation. Delivering a curriculum that is proven, each child is assessed and a programme is written for that child based on their individual needs.

Nothing inspires a Kip McGrath tutor more than a smile from a child who's really 'gotta go!' To watch a child suddenly start to enjoy learning and develop a confidence in their abilities naturally translates into better results at school. So if you are looking for a tutoring experience that will improve your child's confidence, encourage them to enjoy learning and help them improve or extend their literacy and numeracy, contact your local Kip McGrath Educational Centre today.

Donate now to support hospital gardens project

Steeton couple Andrew & Pippa Chapman are leading a funding campaign to establish a new volunteer gardening project at Airedale hospital.

Professional horticulturalists known as Those Plant People, Andrew and Pippa are working in partnership with Friends of Airedale to set up the scheme which needs to raise a minimum of £3000 by 27th April in order to start the project to revamp the many garden areas at the hospital.

Because of the decreased NHS funds available to maintain them, the outdoor areas at the hospital gardens are currently no longer developed by the groundsmen. During a stay at the hospital Pippa noticed the former borders had been gravelled over and wanting to make a difference came up with an idea to transform them to colourful gardens.

She explains "We want to plant the courtyards overlooked by the corridors of the hospital and create flower filled meadows, mini orchards, year round colour, fun outdoor sculptures and herb garden beds around the grounds. There are so many possibilities. We want to raise as much as possible as we have big plans to ensure the success of the project and its long term sustainability."

The idea of restoring and developing the hospital grounds to become 'healing gardens' is based on scientific research which has shown that viewing scenes of nature reduces anger, fear, and stress and increases pleasant feelings. Exposure to nature not only makes you feel better emotionally, it contributes to your physical wellbeing, reducing blood pressure, heart rate, muscle tension, and the production of stress hormones. Some findings indicate it may even reduce mortality.

Can you help Let's Grow Airedale meet its launch target by 27th April? Please give online at www.crowdfunder.co.uk/lets-grow-airedale or in an envelope marked 'Let's Grow Airedale project' handed in to the Friends of Airedale cafe at the hospital. If you would like to volunteer to help with gardening, with no experience necessary, please call Pippa Chapman on 07704 178585 or email thatplantgirl@hotmail.co.uk

Keighley & Worth Valley Railway

We need your help! We are always looking for volunteers to help us operate the railway, joining our team of well-trained and qualified members of the Society, whether it be to get involved in helping to restore and operate the locomotives, to help maintain the track, to act as Guard on the trains or, any of another operational roles, to sell and check tickets. However, we are also very keen to welcome new volunteers to help us behind the scenes where we manage the finances of the railway and deal with the administration of the operation. We would welcome in particular those with experience of administering businesses like ours, which has a volunteer workforce of nearly 500. In addition, we are constantly looking for innovative ways to fund raise, and are very keen to hear from those who would be able to work with our Strategy and Finance directors as they seek to help raise funds, for example to pay the estimated £300k+ for our next locomotive overhaul, and to help us progress a number of key projects across the railway.

Whilst we continue to look for ways to realise our longer-term ambitions, we - quite literally - continue to keep the wheels turning. Our operational locomotive fleet, covering such a wide range of historic periods, is very sought after, to the extent that last weekend three steam locomotives normally resident on the KWVR have been variously to Llangollen in Wales and to the Severn Valley Railway in the West Midlands. We recently enjoyed a very successful 'home fleet' Steam Spectacular weekend at which we enjoyed showcasing our resident locomotives, with double-headed and demonstration freight trains, drawing many compliments from and some great photographs by our visitors.

We have been working hard to appeal to our wide range of visitors. For example, if you can't wait until the weekend or school holidays to travel, this year we have been trialling running our Diesel Rail Bus every Wednesday, which has helped us accommodate school parties, but also a number of other passengers who get to enjoy the view of the line afforded by the windows right at the front and back of the vehicle. For those that prefer to wait until the weekend (or the school holidays), we have started detailing which real ales should be available on the on-train buffet, so do check the website for the 'Real Ale Roster.' If diesel traction is your preference, we plan to operate a diesel service on the second Saturday of each month from April to October (a steam service will also be operating). Details of trains and times can be found on the website, and all planned services are subject to the vagaries and challenges of operating heritage trains, so do please check the site for the latest news.

Please do consider joining our volunteer team by contacting us via the website or me directly, and, as ever, do please get in touch if you have any comments or suggestions.

Queensbury Kitchens Ltd.

Queensbury kitchens started trading around 25 years ago from a small showroom on the high street in Queensbury supplying kitchens and Bedrooms to local contractors and public around the Bradford and Halifax areas.

About ten years ago we moved to larger premises and started to move into supplying bathrooms, bedrooms & sliding wardrobes as well. Always on the lookout for new improved products at the most competitive prices we found the opportunity to move into kitchen door replacement and as more advances were being made in the manufacturing process high quality made to measure kitchen doors became available. Over the last couple of years vinyl manufactures have also been able to produce some amazing finishes and vibrant colours to really make kitchen designs come alive.

Also more people are now able to use the Internet to get the best deals, cutting out high priced kitchen retailers. We have saved some of our customers literally thousands of pounds buying the exact same kitchen from us after being quoted from other kitchen suppliers. So, if replacement kitchen or bedroom doors are what you are looking for this is the place to be. Please take your time to browse our web site and if you need any help please feel free to call for advice our office is manned by ex fitter's not sales men so you won't get any of that hard sell business but you will get a wealth of knowledge.

The Green Deal Factory Ltd step in at the last minute to save the 1940's weekend.

It's safe to say that the 1940's weekend has become the most popular event in the village and this year's is no different with over 40,000 people expected to attend the vintage gathering.

It has become a commercial success for local traders - where the whole village is turned over to the event, as the clock is turned back 75 years in celebration. But the annual event was days away from cancellation as the spiraling costs made it impossible for the committee to meaningfully run the popular weekend.

It was a local based business, The Green Deal Factory Ltd and its sister company Clever Energy Boilers that stepped into the breach at literally the 11th hour to help out and save the day with much needed funds and a sponsorship deal.

Green Deal Factory Ltd. is part of the Green Deal government backed incentive to offer low-income families 'eco grants' towards new high efficient gas boilers. Sister company, Clever Energy Boilers provide a similar service aimed at the wider general public offering easy pay monthly packages.

Nikki Carroll, one of the organising committee members, said: 'We've absolutely delighted that this year's 1940s weekend has been saved. It's brilliant that Paul Cahvat and Green Deal Factory agreed to do this. We really appreciate that his company has come forward'.

'What a fabulous event, to sponsor' said Green Deal Factory's Paul Cahvat. 'I live in the village and have always gone to sample the atmosphere, so this is a chance to really get involved and provide support for what is a local showcase with a national reputation'. Not only that we have significantly contributed to the local economy as the 3 days brings in a considerable amount of much needed revenue to local businesses.

'We are always keen to sponsor events and organisations which are local to us and our customers and the Haworth 1940's weekend is a great advertisement for the area'.

Look out for both The Green Deal Factory Ltd. and Clever Energy Boilers team, the vans and stands will be onsite throughout the weekend. For more details you can visit www.thegreendealfactory.co.uk.

Dame Vera Lynn, the Forces sweetheart, has given her support to the Haworth 1940's weekend with 70 signed specially commissioned limited edition prints by artist, John Francis, costing £200 each. Unsigned prints are £20, available at Firth's Boutique in Haworth
