Worth Enterprise Park, Valley Road, Keighley

What do you think about the cover this month? The jury is out. Many people when they see dandelions consider them unsightly weeds needing to be pulled up or chemically eradicated through toxic treatments. I participated in No Mow May last year and I haven't touched my lawn since then. I don't know what my neighbours think but I suspect they are wondering when I am going to tidy up the landscape around my house. The thing is, I've noticed how the birds and bees have been attracted to my 'wild' garden and I am determined to support and extend their habitat. I may well wait a bit longer to mow this year. As for the dandelions that are currently proliferating, I intend to pick them and experiment; I'm told they are very nutritious and even medicinal.

Put some colour in your summer

Kick-off your summer with a burst of colour as the annual Sue Ryder Manorlands PaintRush, sponsored PoundToy, Bristol Street Motors and McNally EV, returns to Keighley!

Gather friends and family and head to Marley Playing Fields on Father's Day, Sunday 19 June, where hundreds of people of all ages will walk, jog or run a 5k route and pass through seven colour stations where they will be showered from head to toe in bright-coloured paint.

Along the route there will also be fun obstacles to tackle - from hurdles and cargo nets, to slime pits and slides – and the team from AB Jetting will be adding to the fun by spraying participants with pressure washers.

Everyone that takes part will receive a PaintRush t-shirt, a pack of paint to throw and a medal, and after the run people will be able to enjoy a family fun day with music, food and a bar.

With fun for all the family, this colour run makes for a great day out while raising vital funds for Sue Ryder Manorlands Hospice's expert end-of-life care, as well as the support they provide for patients' families, helping them through the most difficult times.

Tickets cost £15 for adults, £10 for under 18s and £40 for a family of 4.

KEIGHLEY & WORTH VALLEY RAILWAY

SCHOOL'S OUT...

...or at least it has been for the last two weeks, and that has given us a chance to open the Railway all week, and we've enjoyed carrying many happy passengers during the spell of good weather.

After the challenges of lockdowns and closures of the last couple of years, it's great for our volunteers to see full trains running, making all our work so much more worthwhile.

Of course, running a heritage Railway continues to present challenges. The locomotives, rolling stock and infrastructure require careful – and increasingly expensive – care and maintenance, particularly with the Railway being over 150 years old, and some of our operational locomotives are now over a century old. As well as the planned maintenance and overhauls, an increasingly pressing challenge is the cost and availability of fuel.

The situation in Ukraine is appalling, and my heart goes out to all those affected. The situation has had a consequence on the Railway because it has contributed to the increase in the cost of diesel fuel (which we are all experiencing at the pumps) and it has meant that one option for the supply of coal has been shut down, which is a problem because all the coal mines and pits in the UK that produced steam coal are now closed.

The whole heritage railway movement is impacted by the situation, and we have been at the forefront of the work to find alternative fuels by recently being the first standard gauge (ie full size) steam railway to trial a more environmentally-friendly fuel. More research and development is needed to refine the composition of the fuel, but we hope that this paves the way to providing options to heritage railways across the country.

Having said that, we are continuing to operate our full programme of events, and our team of 700+ volunteers look forward to welcoming you onboard soon. Even better would be if we could welcome you to our team. We are always open to new volunteers, and you can apply via the website or by calling into the office at Haworth.

As the warm spring days are upon us, and tourists begin to flock towards our beautiful area, we are entering an exciting period for our local attractions. Across the area, we have Yorkshire's, and the country's, finest tourist offerings. Look at The Brontë Parsonage Museum, a great place to learn about some of our most illustrious residents and a fitting tribute to their works, or the famous Keighley and Worth Valley Railway; an amazing way to take a trip back in time for the afternoon. Additionally, Cliffe Castle, East Riddlesden Hall, and the emerging Keighley Creative offer an even broader cultural mix.

With such a fine and diverse cultural offering, it is no surprise to see that our area has been shortlisted to be the UK City, (or as I prefer to say) District of Culture for 2025. It has been great to play my part in this campaign, and bang the drum for why our local attractions mean we are the only choice for this title. Down in Westminster, I have met with relevant Ministers including Culture Secretary Nadine Dorries and Arts Minister Lord Parkinson to make our case for being chosen as the winner on behalf of our great many attractions, local businesses and cultural offerings.

Being awarded the City of Culture title has the potential to have such a positive impact on our local economy. You only need to look at past Cities of Culture like Hull and Coventry to see this, with both cities receiving tens of millions of pounds to fund festivals and support local projects. Indeed, in Hull, it is estimated five million visitors went to the city as part of their celebrations. It is of course key the whole District benefits from a potential title and I will be working hard to ensure this is the case. Just think what this funding and tourism could do for our area. Small businesses, whether on Haworth Main Steet, or Keighley and Silsden's town centres, will receive such a boost from extra visitors.

If the District is awarded the City of Culture title, it will be partly down to those amazing cultural spots I have mentioned. Since being elected, I have had the pleasure of visiting local attractions many times and meeting with the volunteers and business owners. They have faced tough times, yet after having periods of no visitors, they could possibly open their doors to millions of people.

That is why I say let's get behind this initiative, shout from the rooftops about what we locally have to offer and back the bid to be City of Culture 2025!

Asparagus Risotto

by Martin Lingard

The English asparagus season is here, a sure sign of Spring, this is my favourite risotto and it makes one bunch of asparagus go a long way and feed four people. If you omit the streaky bacon and use a vegetable stock rather than a chicken stock as your base, this recipe becomes vegetarian.

Ingredients (Serves 4)

- 1 bunch of English asparagus
- 750ml chicken stock
- 75g unsalted butter
- 1 medium onion
- 4 rashers of streaky bacon (unsmoked)
- 200g arborio rice
- 100ml dry white vermouth (or dry white wine)
- 1 tablespoon of chopped fresh mint
- 100g Parmesan
- Sea salt
- Freshly ground black pepper

Method

The secret to making a good risotto is to have all your ingredients prepared and to hand, otherwise it can get away from you! So, bring your stock up to a simmer, snap off the woody bits of your asparagus and chuck the woody bits into your stock. Leave to simmer for 30 minutes while you do the rest of your prep then strain, return to a clean pan and keep warm on a low heat at the back of your stove. Have a ladle to hand.

Chop the tips off the asparagus and blanch them in boiling salted water for a minute then drain and plunge into cold water then drain again and set aside.

Chop the remaining asparagus stalks into thickish discs on the diagonal (about 5-10 mm) and reserve, finely chop your onion and bacon rashers and finely grate your cheese. Gently melt your 2/3 of your butter in a large saucepan and fry your onion and bacon together, stirring occasionally with a wooden spoon until the onion is soft and a pale gold colour. Reduce the heat, tip in your rice and stir until well mixed, now chuck in your sliced asparagus but not the tips.

Pour in your vermouth and stir till it's almost all been absorbed by the rice, now add a ladleful of your stock, stirring until it has been absorbed then add another ladleful and repeat until you've used all your stock. Add the asparagus tips when you're about 2/3 of the way down your stock. Once you've used all your stock and it has all been absorbed by the rice, remove your pan from the heat and stir in the fresh mint, the remaining butter, half your cheese and a few good grinds of black pepper, stir then check to see if it needs added salt. Cover your pot and leave for 3 minutes or so then serve onto warm plates and sprinkle over the remaining cheese.

BEHIND THE SCENES AT THE MUSEUM

This month, with spring clearly in the air, we thought we'd let you hear from our green-fingered gardening volunteers...

Signs of spring came to the garden early this year thanks to an unusually mild and sunny January. So mild was the weather, that hardly a week passed by all winter without one of the roses still in flower and lifting the spirits. The hellebores were the first of the spring flowers to bloom, soon to be followed by the cheerful, welcome sight of the aconites and then, in quick succession, swathes of snowdrops.

Work in the garden continued throughout the winter with some planting and a little tidying, but in an effort to provide over-wintering habitats for insects and larvae and create winter interest by leaving seed heads and berries throughout the garden, clearance work was kept to a minimum.

One big change that took place during the winter months was the removal of the large ash tree situated in the graveyard at the side of the Parsonage which sadly succumbed to ash tree dieback last summer. Trying to maintain a positive outlook, this will allow more light to fall on one of the shadiest parts of the garden and so bring the possibility of introducing new plants to the border which would not have flourished there before.

Looking ahead, our main focus is on endeavouring to work more sustainably wherever possible and to have wildlife and biodiversity at the forefront of our decision-making. We are looking at creating more of our own compost to use within the garden and we are also investigating the possibility of harvesting rainwater.

New planting will be carried out with the intention of attracting more bees, butterflies and other pollinators into the garden and a new 'bug hotel' has been created to provide a habitat for them. The hotel has been made from offcuts and recycled materials and filled with foraged materials collected on woodland walks and so also fits in with our sustainable ethos. We are also looking at ways in which we can eliminate, or at least reduce, the use of plastics in the garden, just as we do across the rest of the Museum.

The garden is the first thing visitors see when they come to the Parsonage and always attracts positive feedback and compliments. Whatever the time of year, we hope our neighbours and local residents enjoy it too.

LOFT LADDERS

Yorkshire Loft Ladders, Quality You Can Trust

These days most homeowners suffer from a lack of storage space. So many precious items that need to be kept - but where to store it all? That's where Yorkshire Loft Ladders come in. The company, based locally, offers homeowners the opportunity to maximise their storage space with a loft ladder, 50 sq ft of boarding and a light all fully fitted in less than a day from just £277 + VAT. But it's not just the affordability of the package the company offers that makes Yorkshire Loft Ladders stand out as manager Mark Hodson explains: 'Our watchwords are Quality, Integrity and Value. Quality in the materials that we use for all our installations and the fact that all our loft packages are fitted by time served tradesman so our customers are assured of the best job. Integrity in that we will turn up at the time we say and make sure the house is spotless when we leave, and Value in that we offer our services at a price people can afford. Our business relies on referrals and we get a huge amount of our calls from people who have been referred to us by our existing customers - that simply wouldn't happen if we didn't adhere to our overniding principles.

At the end of the day the old adage that happy customers lead to more happy customers is true and we work hard to make that happen for every installation we carry out!

So, if you want to make use of your loft space, however big or small, call Warren on 0800 612 8359 and he'll be happy to pop round and give you a no obligation quote so you too can make use of your loft.
