

Pauline May, established in 1991, is a local company that supplies a complete range of clothing nationwide for the more mature person, and is truly a one-stop shop for the elderly.

The company specialises in taking a mobile shop along to care homes and is a much appreciated service to the care establishment, saving them both time, money and the hassle finding and purchasing the clothing themselves. The service also relieves the residents' relatives of the time consuming responsibility of sourcing and purchasing clothing for their loved ones.

along with a mail order service using the company's 44-page colour catalogue and features a free postage service.

The Pauline May range of clothing is made in the UK and carries the Pauline May label. All garments are washable and easy care, and carry a 100% money back guarantee against spoilage in the often harsh washing regimes of care homes.

Other features include

- The ladies range covers sizes 8 through to 30
- A full men's wear range covering sizes 30" to 54" waist
