Worth Enterprise Park, Valley Road, Keighley

Thumbs up for the ladies, girls, women this month... March 8th is International Women's Day and the 27th is Mother's Day. Everyday can be a day to appreciate the women in your life but it is especially great to mark the occasion and celebrate. Ashmount is offering afternoon teas! What a fabulous way to treat a special woman in your life (more details on p5).

On the subject of celebrating, we are highlighting two milestones of note: one is for Silverland with Passion in Haworth and the other is Keybury in Keighley. Congratulations and well done. (See pages 4 and 12 respectively to find out what they have achieved). We are always delighted to showcase local businesses and their success stories.

As restrictions are lifted and confidence returns, local traders, B&Bs, restaurants, pubs, museums, event planners and the like are looking at how to make Brontë Country accessible and attractive to visitors. The fourth annual Worth Valley Tourism Forum will take place later this month on March 30th. See page 23 for details and be sure to book your place if you are a stakeholder in the visitor economy.

We'd also like to highlight the Keighley & Worth Valley Railway's local railcard that is available to you as a resident and comes with the advantage of traveling for 1/2 price! See page 20. for more information.

Let's hope the weather has made a turn for the best and we can start to contemplate spring. Have a great March.

Liz Barker, Editor

Silverland With Passion Celebrating 20 Years in Haworth

On Easter Sunday the 31st March 2002, twenty years ago, 'Silverland' opened its doors on Main Street Haworth for the very first time.

It was the vision of Helen and Steve Rowell to offer good quality silver and gemstone jewellery.

In August 2008, the concept was expanded and 'Passion' was opened next door to Silverland, offering scarves, purses, bags, gifts and accessories. Several years later the two businesses were amalgamated into one and the current 'Silverland with Passion' was created.

The family run business continued to flourish when daughters Karen and Clare took over the helm in October 2017, allowing Helen and Steve to have a much-deserved rest and move to Portugal.

Using knowledge built up over two decades, Karen and Clare have now been able to showcase their love for precious, semi-precious gemstones and crystals and are skilled at sourcing the best quality products, handpicked, from around the world.

Silverland With Passion offers a fantastic range of products, every member of staff is trained in all of the gemstones, their characteristics, qualities and the benefits they can bring to people's health and wellbeing. This means that every customer has the opportunity for a unique personal experience based on their need or interest. Despite the difficulties experienced by the retail trade over the past couple of years, Karen and Clare worked extremely hard to ensure Silverland With Passion came out the other side and have successfully taken the shop and the website to the next level where its excellent reputation continues to grow.

The owners were keen to acknowledge Silverland with Passion wouldn't be where it is now without the wonderful staff who have helped along the way and the customers old and new who have supported them throughout the years.

As a thank you to the community Clare and Karen would like to celebrate this important milestone. There will be complimentary fizz flowing on Saturday 2nd April to mark the twenty year anniversary at 76 Main Street Haworth. Please call in and take a look at the recently decorated and restyled shop and join in the party.

As a special bonus, mention the Worth Valley Mag throughout the month of March 2022 to get a 20% discount on all purchases

Say you saw it in the Worth Valley Mag!

You may have noticed the neon sign that appeared Upstairs at Pennybank House at the top of Haworth Main Street prior to Christmas. The sign reads “No coward soul is mine,” a quote from a poem by Emily Brontë.

The neon light is formed in cursive script that renders it challenging to read, not unlike the poet’s penmanship, which if you visit the Parsonage Museum a few steps away, you can see for yourself, as there is much authentic Brontë ephemera that fills the display cabinets in that luminous place.

It is best to view the sign between dusk and dawn to appreciate its pink glow. During the day, it is of little consequence or effect.

I’m not a literary scholar, nor a Brontë expert, but I do consider myself a Brontë fan. Having lived in and around Bradford for over thirty years, I am steeped in an awareness and appreciation for the petite sisters from Haworth (and born in Thornton) who rocked the literary world with their expansive and wild thoughts.

I think of “No coward soul is mine” as a

Yorkshire quote. It is blunt, gritty and sure of itself. I’ve seen it printed on mugs, pencil cases, tea towels, and the like. The commodification of British literary culture is alive and well.

In my mind, it is an affirmation of epic proportions, deeply supportive and comforting on so many levels. There is a defiant steadfast stance about it that disdains sentimentality or an overtly grandstand of emotions. That feels truly Yorkshire to me and I’d be happy to wear “No coward soul is mine” on a (Fairtrade) t-shirt any day of the week.

I designed and named the neon sign Resilient. It reflects the idea of the work I had undertaken as part of the Bradford LiT Festival and encapsulates my intentions both internally and externally to respond to life that felt restricted and under threat in 2020. I was under pressure and I wanted to be in a position to withstand the tumultuous conditions that were unfolding in the world.

In varying degrees we have all been traumatised by events of the past two years.

To advertise call us on 01535 642227

I found wells of reserve that were surprising and noticeable. I felt brave in some inexplicable way.

Something I had been mulling over as I put together the application for the funding of this work was the notion of being 'in keeping with.' Buildings being 'in keeping with' other buildings. The village of Haworth being an environment that needed to be maintained and preserved 'in keeping with' its heritage. I asked myself why and how this concept and principle was so important.

The idea of fitting in, quietly blending with structures, and not making a fuss was a subject of interest to me. A British sense of taste and understatement was competing with my desire to create a bright bold flashing neon sign, much more 'in keeping with' my own expression of thought. It seemed to me that a Las Vegas style sign would be a fabulous homage worthy of the mighty Emily Brontë.

In the end, the piece stands alone without the Vegas treatment. (Alas, no flashing cowgirl swinging her leg).

I think it is suitably understated.

More importantly, I wonder how Emily would react to her words being displayed in bright electric pink, illuminating her neighbourhood, one hundred and seventy four years after her death.

Resilient is a temporary art work and neon sign that is in place (2-4 West Lane, Haworth) until mid March. Upstairs at Pennybank will host a number of discussions relating to the subject of resilience and the ways individuals are recovering from COVID19 and the global pandemic. (photos by John Sargent)

BEHIND THE SCENES AT THE MUSEUM

Sassy Holmes,
Brontë Parsonage Museum

“Happiness quite unshared can scarcely be called happiness.”

In the words of Charlotte Brontë, sharing is caring, and at the Brontë Parsonage Museum we’re planning an event that celebrates this and the bold women like the Brontë sisters who proclaim it. On Sunday 13th March, 12-3pm, we are celebrating International Women’s Day with The Big Brontë Clothes Swap; an event that welcomes the community to bring unwanted clothes and accessories to Haworth, ready to trade, barter, donate and swap.

We’re inviting people from across the community to come along to the Old School Room, where Charlotte and Emily Brontë taught needlework, and share. Whether it’s a jumper, hat, or jeans, we will provide tables and rails for you to come and display your unwanted threads, and hopefully you’ll find a hidden treasure in another person’s ‘trash’. We will have talks throughout the day about our new exhibition Defying Expectations: Inside Charlotte Brontë’s Wardrobe, and any person who comes to the clothes swap will receive a free ticket to come back to the museum and explore the Parsonage. We will also have an Inspiration Station; a fix-up corner where you can come and ask for advice, learn creative ways to revitalise clothing, and find out about upcycling, mending, and sustainable fashion. With free tea, coffee, and cake, the Big Brontë Clothes Swap is an afternoon for everyone in the community to come together.

As well as The Big Brontë Clothes Swap, spring brings with it a whole bunch of other Brontë events. We’re bringing back our monthly talks, so join us ever Material worth y third Thursday at 2pm to learn something new about the Brontës. If you can’t make it to the Parsonage, don’t worry - our talks will also take place online on the very same evening. On St Patrick’s Day, Thursday 17 March, we’re welcoming Buglight Theatre to the Parsonage for a matinee performance of Jane Hair: The Brontës Restyled. This modern-day retelling sees the sisters as beauty stylists; it’s set to be an afternoon of sibling rivalry and literary debate in Bradford’s most creative beauty salon where the Brontës cut, colour and style whilst sharing their hopes and dreams! For information and booking, please head to our website <https://www.bronte.org.uk/whats-on> or give us a call on 01535 640192.

I for one am ready for a spring full of fantastic Brontë events. My name is Sassy, and I’m the new Programme Officer at the Brontë Parsonage Museum. I will be looking after the events and contemporary arts programmes, and I can’t wait to meet people in our community and run fun, engaging events, just like The Big Brontë Clothes Swap. Keep your eyes peeled for more throughout the year!

This is a landmark year for Keybury, as we celebrate our 40th anniversary year.

Keybury is proud to be one of Keighley's longest established independent family run companies. It's our family business to protect families and businesses with fire protection and security systems. You will find Keybury systems throughout Yorkshire, Lancashire, Cumbria and Greater Manchester, but our HQ remains in Keighley.

Our story began back in 1982 when husband and wife joint managing directors Frank and Patricia Gee started installing security systems for homes and businesses. A lot has happened since then, but their original aims to provide high quality workmanship, innovative security systems and excellent customer service prevail.

Frank & Patricia still head up the 50 strong team based in Keighley. Our team have grown in number over the past four decades and we've even recruited several new colleagues since the pandemic. Our new team members build on our already strong skilled and experienced team – many of whom have been part of the "Keybury family" for a decade (or two or three!).

As a family run business, all our team members and customers are a part of our Keybury family. It's always a pleasure to speak to our long-standing customers who tell us they've been with us "since it was just Frank", and recall him quoting and installing their system. A great many of these customers are in Keighley and the surrounding villages.

It's equally joyful to welcome new customers into our Keybury family and give them the reassurance and peace of mind they need. Our customers say things like "very polite, professional and flying the colours of Keybury. He was a true Keybury family man." and our team consistently go above and beyond for each other and our customers; It really is the best team to belong to!

We continue to work to the highest standards in the industry, with NSI Gold & BAFE approved systems. Our systems are police compliant, and insurance approved because we believe in doing things properly. We don't fit and run - instead we provide ongoing support for our customers from telephone support to 24 hour call out.

We've got big plans for the next forty years as we continue to build on our environmental credentials and bring the latest innovations in fire and security systems for our customers.

Keybury Fire & Security are based at Worth Enterprise Park, Keighley, providing peace of mind for home and business owners by installing and maintaining quality approved fire alarms, CCTV, access control, doorbell cameras, fire extinguishers and intruder alarms.

WINTER MINISTRONE

by Martin Lingard

Adapted over the years from an old River Café recipe, this has become a family favourite. It becomes a vegan recipe if you omit the bacon and chorizo, use vegetable stock and just use the herb garnish. It's very cheap and easy, tasty and healthy. It does take an hour or two including prep' but I used to cook it the night before, after the kids had gone to bed, up to the point of adding the last 1/4 of cabbage, then finish it off the following teatime. You can have dinner on the table within 15 minutes of getting back from work.

Ingredients (feeds 5 well)

- Olive oil
- 4 rashers smoked streaky bacon, chopped
- 4 medium carrots, peeled and chopped
- 2 medium onions, peeled and chopped
- 1 head of celery, leaves removed and reserved
- 1 head of garlic, cloves peeled
- 3 - 4lbs of winter greens (kale, cavolo nero, spring cabbage, savoy etc - tough stalks removed and shredded)
- 1 bunch flat leaf parsley, finely chopped
- 400g tin plum tomatoes
- 400g tin of white beans (cannellini, haricot)
- 1 litre of chicken or vegetable stock
- 1 chorizo ring, peeled and sliced
- Salt & Pepper
- Parmesan, grated

Method

Add a few good glugs of olive oil into your favourite stove top pot and set over a medium to low heat. If using, add your bacon and cook until the fat starts to run but before it takes colour. Now add the roughly chopped carrots, celery and onions and cook slowly for at least 30 minutes, stirring frequently until all is very soft, adding the peeled garlic cloves roughly halfway through. Add the tomatoes and cook for a further 5-10 minutes. Tip in the white beans and their liquid, add the stock and 3/4 of your shredded cabbages / kale, half of the chopped parsley and the chorizo if using. Bring to the boil, reduce the heat and simmer, partially covered for 30 minutes, stirring occasionally. Season to taste with salt and black pepper. Add the remaining shredded cabbages and simmer for a further 5 minutes. Finely chop the reserved celery leaves and mix with the remaining parsley. Ladle the soup into warm bowls, sprinkle some of the chopped parsley & celery leaves and the grated parmesan over each bowl, with a slug of extra olive oil, and serve with crusty bread. This is one of those meals which gets even better overnight and heated up again the next day - and freezes well too.

WORTH VALLEY

KEIGHLEY & WORTH VALLEY RAILWAY

It's sometimes a bit easy to overlook a gem on the doorstep, and you are very fortunate in that you have a gem very near you and - even better - you get a discount as a local resident when you visit it. The Railway offers residents of BD20/21/22 up to 50% off standard rail fares and a 10% discount on purchases from the on-train buffet car. You can save more than the annual cost of the railcard in one visit, so please download the application form from the Railway's website and bring it, a passport-sized photo and recent proof of address to your local KWVR station when trains are running and start saving.

There will be plenty of opportunities to make use of your railcard because as well as our regular weekend steam trains, the Wednesday diesel rail car service recommences in March before we add more days in June and then run all week in the summer as well as the Easter holidays.

There's also our regular programme of events that includes the annual "Steam Extravaganza" 11th-13th

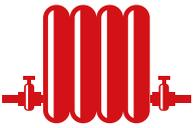

March. We will welcome two visiting locomotives and get to enjoy the home fleet in action. We are supporting for the new Haworth family-focused "Witches and Wizards" day on Saturday 19th March; the Haworth 1940s weekend which is making a welcome return 21st-22nd May; and the inaugural Keighley Transport Festival 2nd-3rd June.

With so much going on, we are asking a lot of our 700 volunteers, and so you will understand that we are always keen to welcome new recruits. With a 150+ year-old Railway and an operational fleet that includes two locomotives over 100 years old we have plenty of maintenance as well as the front of house roles that you will see when you visit, so do please consider joining the volunteering team.

We all look forward to welcoming you onboard soon!

Treacle [®]

helping you find everything you need for a healthier and happier life

Helen O'Connell

Like so many other people, I find the first months of the year can be tough. But happily, not this year! I am delighted to announce that the Treacle App has launched at last. Just use the QR (Quick Response) codes at the bottom of this article to scan and go.

The amazing tech team over at Kiseki Studios have helped me develop the App, and it is available on both Apple and Android phones, with all the brilliant features of the web site.

Treacle is breaking down barriers to information as it is totally free to use and you do not need to register or sign up to be able to access the service.

Treacle is already making life easier for the people who use the site regularly. Doctors use it to find information for their patients, social workers use it to stay updated with local services, and the public have the same direct access, you can simply scan and go.

Treacle is unique in the UK and it is soon going to be revolutionising access to information far beyond the Aire and Worth Valleys as it is about to cover the whole Bradford area. For the first time ever, national and local social prescribing information has been brought together to create a whole new way to find the services, support and help you need.

If you need more support than simply being directed to services, then you should ask your GP surgery for an appointment to see a Social Prescriber. You can have a one to one appointment where you will build a relationship, which ensures that the Social Prescriber fully understands your concerns and your needs are met. Whether you are new to the area and feeling isolated, you are struggling to know how to deal with your child, you want to reduce your alcohol intake or need support looking after a family member with dementia. Whatever your need, the Social Prescribers are there to help you through. Sometimes, people do not need the full one to one service, they simply need to know where to go for help. That is why Treacle was built.

On this page, over the last few months, you have heard from just a few of the groups that are listed on treacle.me. I hope this has given you a taste of the sort of services which exist right here on your door step. If you run a group which is not listed then please get in touch via the web site for us to add you to Treacle.

~ Helen O'Connell, RN QN, Advanced Nurse Practitioner, Founder of Treacle.me

Nightmares turn to new dreams and a new reality

by Steven Edwards

It is two years since the first lockdown and we find ourselves forced to adapt and change in ways that are difficult to comprehend.

Through the sheer determination and nature of humans to overcome problems and challenges we witness what extraordinary lengths people will do to work together to ensure the future and well being of society. I feel encouraged by a hope to keep the dream and belief of success and prosperity alive to benefit the community and our children.

We all have our own stories of "digging deep" and getting through the darkest days of the pandemic. I am particularly proud of my team and the individuals who make up the workforce in my two businesses, Cobbydale Construction and Bingley Windows.

The level of commitment displayed on a daily basis and often selflessly to safeguard the livelihoods of colleagues as well as our suppliers and sub-contractors, has been heartwarming.

Significant increases in the cost of everyday living, shortages of supplies and of Cobbydale Construction and Bingley Windows

almost daily disruptions have been felt by us all. The challenges are real and painful.

At Cobbydale Construction and Bingley Windows we have responded by putting emphasis on streamlining our work practices and improving our processes and production methods. On site service has noticeably enhanced our performance too. Better communications has been at the forefront of our efforts and helped us maintain the success that we achieved prior to the pandemic. Our values remain the same which include an honest work ethic and a commitment to quality.

With an optimistic outlook moving forward I believe the future is bright.

It goes without saying that none of this would be possible without our loyal client base, past, present and future and I thank the community for its continued support.

Readers of the Worth & Aire Valley magazines are eligible for a limited number of our weekly priority appointments to supply and install our Bingley Windows products with a 10% discount! Call us to book ahead. The offer is good for work carried out in April and May 01535-958183

From all of us here at Cobbydale Construction & Bingley Windows please stay safe and be well!

Yorkshire Loft Ladders, Quality You Can Trust

These days most homeowners suffer from a lack of storage space. So many precious items that need to be kept - but where to store it all? That's where Yorkshire Loft Ladders come in. The company, based locally, offers homeowners the opportunity to maximise their storage space with a loft ladder, 50 sq ft of boarding and a light all fully fitted in less than a day from just £277 + VAT. But it's not just the affordability of the package the company offers that makes Yorkshire Loft Ladders stand out as manager Mark Hodson explains: 'Our watchwords are Quality, Integrity and Value. Quality in the materials that we use for all our installations and the fact that all our loft packages are fitted by time served tradesman so our customers are assured of the best job. Integrity in that we will turn up at the time we say and make sure the house is spotless when we leave, and Value in that we offer our services at a price people can afford. Our business relies on referrals and we get a huge amount of our calls from people who have been referred to us by our existing customers - that simply wouldn't happen if we didn't adhere to our overriding principles.

At the end of the day the old adage that happy customers lead to more happy customers is true and we work hard to make that happen for every installation we carry out!

So, if you want to make use of your loft space, however big or small, call Warren on 0800 612 8359 and he'll be happy to pop round and give you a no obligation quote so you too can make use of your loft.
